MEMORANDUM

SUBJECT: • BOZIC, Vojislav
[aka: • BOSIC, Vojislav]

1. According to a report dated 3 October 1949 from the Intelligence Division of the European Command of the United States Army in which Subject's name appeared on the September 1949 supplement to the List of Informants Dropped by United States Intelligence Agencies in Germany and Austria, Subject, whose name was spelled Vojislav BOSIC, was dropped with prejudice because of ineptitude on 27 May 1949. The report gave Subject's nationality as Yugoslav and listed his last known address as Offenbach, Group 2, CCD, Germany.

2. On 1 April 1963, Subject's name appeared on a list of those persons who were possibly compromised to Soviet intelligence services by Heinz FELFE who had access to American intelligence services' information which had been passed in written memoranda by this Agency to the West German Intelligence Service (BND). Subject, whose last known address was given as Waldeckstrasse 45, Oberammergau, West Germany, was possibly compromised by FELFE circa 30 March 1960. (Comment: Compromised as used above means that Subject may have been brought to the attention of a Soviet intelligence service as being connected with or being of interest to an American or Western intelligence service. This Office has no information concerning the manner in which a Soviet intelligence service may have used the above information.)
